

In unity with one another,
we are creating a world of peace.

Our prayers draw us close together in faith, and in this shared experience, we feel our oneness with all people just as surely as we feel our oneness with God. As we recognize one another as children of God, we see all humankind as one family. We send blessings of love, peace, and understanding to everyone around the world.

In these moments, we affirm new opportunities to work in partnership with others. We are guided by God to share experiences of harmony, prosperity, wisdom, and well-being. Let us return now to the silence of prayer ...

Time spent with God in prayer always yields abundant goodness. We hold to this truth as our meditation comes to a close. With renewed energy and enthusiasm, we are ready to move forward with the activities of our day, knowing we can return to this inner prayer space—the field of divine possibility—whenever we choose.

For in this sacred place, we cocreate with God to bring the good desires of our hearts to fruition. Harvests of divine blessings await us as our sacred prayer practice continues.

We give thanks for these precious opportunities as we end our meditation now. Let us join together in affirming the “Prayer for Protection”:

The light of God surrounds us;
The love of God enfolds us;
The power of God protects us;
The presence of God watches over us.

Wherever we are, God is!

Silent Unity Prayer Service November 2008

It is not I, but the Christ within who does the work.

What a privilege it is to unite in sacred prayer. Let us journey inward to an awareness of pure potentiality—a field of divine possibilities. We visualize fertile soil in which we can plant seeds of faith and harvest divine blessings.

In partnership with God, we clear away any debris that may cloud our thoughts and open the field for new growth. Enriching the soil with thoughts of gratitude, we give thanks for the goodness in our lives and make way for new blessings.

Centered in faith, we sow our prayer seeds now and allow them time to germinate as we enter the silence ...

Retreating to the stillness of our souls, we experience absolute peace.

We let go of outer concerns as we move deeper into our time of prayer. In this place of stillness at the center of our beings, our yearning for peace is met as we fully perceive our oneness with God and with all creation.

The rhythm of absolute peace moves through us now, through every breath and every sensation. Experiencing our unity with God and with the universe, we feel blissfully content as we rest in these quiet moments in harmony with God and with all things ...

Receptive to the guidance of Spirit, we move forward with confidence.

Centered in peace, we open our hearts and minds now to the infinite wisdom of Spirit. We rest in the assurance that the inspiration, discernment, and direction we seek are being revealed to us. Answers to our questions are emerging at the right time and in the perfect way, like seedlings bursting through the soil. Everything is unfolding according to a divine plan.

Spirit illumines our minds, clarifying our perspective and brightening our outlook. Secure in the wisdom of Spirit, we return to the silence ...

God's healing energy flows throughout our bodies. Cell by cell, we are transformed.

We give thanks for our body temples, which enable us to fully experience the physical world. These magnificent creations respond to the healing energy of God within. Our bodies are constantly being renewed.

Let us turn our awareness to the healing energy of God at work within us now. We sense this energy moving through every system, organ, and tissue—establishing perfect health and order. We claim healing and affirm strength, wholeness, and freedom for ourselves and others. We are restored and revitalized in every way.

Immersed in healing energy, we return to the peace of prayer ...

With thankful hearts, we anticipate and accept God's abundance.

God is our source of good—our direct channel to abundance. We open ourselves to the divine flow in these quiet moments, welcoming the full expression of prosperity into our lives. An ever-renewing cycle of abundance nourishes and fortifies us.

We are assured of bountiful blessings at all times and in all circumstances, for we are always receptive to our Source. Giving thanks for what we have and for the continued abundance that is flowing to us, we pray ...
